INSTRUCTOR: Roy Jackson, CAFD, FTD Master Designer

Roy Jackson, CAFD, FTD Master Designer, is very well known for his design skills. His technical knowledge of the floral and horticulture industry also qualifies him as an outstanding teacher and demonstrator. His accomplishments over his 30 years associated with this field speak well for him.

Roy received his Plant Propagation certificate at Lake Shore Tree Farms and went on to manage Miller's Green house for ten years. He taught Floral Design at the University of Saskatchewan, and also taught design at the community level for many years. In 1990, Roy was awarded the F.T.D. Master Designer accreditation and not long after, the Flowers Canada coveted CAFD in 1993. He has done numerous design shows and co-ordinated many large corporate events.

Roy also had the privilege to assist and coach the Canadian competitor for the Interflora World Cup Competition held in Amsterdam. His retail experience spans many years and he is well known and respected by his employers and customers alike.

The Florists Supply Team welcomed Roy to the Saskatoon branch in June 2006, where he now continues to share his knowledge and expertise. Roy and his wife Leona, a registered nurse, share their love of gardening, cooking and travelling.
